

Sample Paper – 2014
Class – X
Subject –English

EDITING

1. In fact the single sentence is enough to [a] framing in opinions about [b] us from others. Word are like arrows. [c]
Once out of our mouth, they can be [d]
brought back. Words chose may depict [e] politeness and sarcasm or even flatter. [f]
he was clever enough to understanding the relevance of the fact.

2. Language may generate piece and [a]
harmony and may as well breeds contempt [b] and hatred. Language may creates beautiful [c] relations or even destroy closer [d]
companionship. Such are the value of [e]
the words which we often careless [f] utter.

3. We do not realise the impact word [a] may cause. To speaking the right words [b] at the right time is very more important [c]
but more then that is to avoid speaking [d]
the wrong words at a most tempting [e]
moment, are much more valuable. [f]

www.cbseguess.com

Other Educational Portals

www.icseguess.com | www.ignouguess.com | www.aipmtguess.com | www.aieeeguess.com | www.niosguess.com | www.iitguess.com

4. We need not be scared of words [a]
and we may certainly be careful while [b]
speaking. You need not be decorative or [c] deliver sugar-coat utterances but [d]
we may sure be cautious. Language [e]
may lead to laurels and even brickbats. [f]

5. It's best to be frank and outspoken [a]
But at time we may be reserve and [b]
quite. Language displays inner virtues [c] and vices. Kind and encouraged words [d]
may brought enthusiasm whereas derogatory [e]
remarks might injure the person's spirit. [f]

6. You must have heard of a famous [a] proverb "As you sow, as shall you reap". [b]
So if you expect other to be kind, honest [c]
and humble in there speech then you also [d]
must reciprocate to the same manner. [e]
Value your words and words will value us. [f]

7. The peddler stolen thirty kronors [a]
And escaped through the path [b]
That leads to a forest. By then he was [c]
Quiet hungry and he started searching [d]

For a shelter for the night. He sees [e]

A iron mill and went inside to have [f]

A look.

8.The people inside didn't looked [a]

Friendly. Gathered courage, he asked [b]

To a shelter for the night. The owner [c]

Of the iron mill arrived and mistake [d]

The peddler as his once lost friends. [e]

The peddler didn't said anything and [f]

Went with the owner to his home.

9.Douglas has a misadventure in his [a]

Past which had brought on him a fear[b]

for water. He had to sacrifice all the water[c]

Sports. He decided to take the help of a [d]

Instructor. His will power made him learnt[e]

Swimming soon. The help of an instructor[f]

Also proved beneficial.

10.Sophie wished to fulfil all his dreams of[a]

A luxurious life she had dreamt off. She[b]

Wanted to realise these desires by simply[c]

Dreaming. She forgot that she had to been[d]

Practical in life. She was so lost with her[e]

Dreams that she lost touch from reality.[f]

11. Hobbies play an important role in today's[a]

Modern stressful life. Any hobby acts as a[b]

medium to recreation. It breaks the [c]

Monotony of routine life and brings[d]

Freshness. Hobbies can be of several types.[e]

But they have a great importance in life.[f]

12. Whenever you hear somebody harp (a) ____

about how 'hard work' is a key to success, (b) ____

don't let that faze us. Yes, you do need (c) ____

to work hard in order to succeed in (d) ____

achieving your goal, but it's all with the (e) ____

eye of the worker. It's all relative. (f) ____

Paper Submitted By:

Name PREETI SHRIVASTAVA

Email preety0907@gmail.com