

UNIT TEST # 1
CLASS – XI
POLITICAL SCIENCE

TIME ALLOTTED: 90 minutes

M.M: 50

Instructions:

- Attempt all the questions and number your questions accurately.
 - For Objective Type Questions, write only the correct option and not the entire question.
-

Q.I. Objective Type Questions.

[1X6=6]

- a. "Political Theory discusses the ideas that form the basis of political institutions." Do you agree/disagree?
- b. "Constitution gives a guarantee to the rights of the citizen". True/False?
- c. Which of the following is a strong point of contention to conclude that the authority of the constitution is higher than that of the Parliament?
 1. The constitution was framed before the parliament came into being.
 2. The constitution leaders were more eminent leaders than the members of the parliament.
 3. The constitution specifies how parliament is to be formed and what are its powers.
 4. The constitution cannot be amended by the parliament.
- d. "Constitution exists and are required only in democratic countries." Agree/Disagree?
- e. "The Constitution guarantees remedy against violation of Rights." Agree/Disagree?
- f. What is Constitution? [Answer within 30 words].

Q. II. Questions under this category contain 4 marks each. Keep the word-limit 100 for answering these questions.

[4X8=32]

1. Elucidate as to why vigilant Citizens are a must for successful working of a democracy?
2. How is Political Theory useful to us? Elaborate with 4 points.
3. Why do you think that the powers and functions of every organ is clearly demarcated in constitution? What would happen if this was not done?
4. When children are forced to work as child labours and therefore they eventually become drop-outs, which Fundamental Right gets violated and why?
5. Discuss the Right to Equality as given in the constitution.
6. What are the objectives of Indian Constitution?
7. State the importance of Political Theory.
8. What are Directive Principles? How are they related to Fundamental Rights?

Q. III. Questions under this category contains 6 marks each. Word limit should not exceed 150.

[2X6 =12]

1. If you are asked as why one should follow the guidelines mentioned in the constitution as it is very old and doesn't contain the voice of youth in it, how would you answer it?
2. An activist working among the poor says that they do not require Fundamental Rights instead Directive Principles should stay legally binding. Do you agree or disagree? Elaborate with your points of argument.